

POLICE BURGLARS TO BE ARRESTED AND PROSECUTED FOR CRIMES.

STATEMENT THEY WILL SKIP THE COUNTRY.

MAYOR'S STRANGE STAND.

"You Can't Pump Me"
His Statement to the Public.

Whole City Is Ringing
With the Police Scandal.

The scandal in the Police Department is the most astounding thing in the history of the city. The extraordinary conduct of Mayor Olney is still more astounding.

Apparently the Mayor is trying to suppress the facts and stifle investigation.

There is no justifiable reason for concealment.

The public is entitled to know all the facts. The people demand to know all about this business, and it will not patiently put up with the Mayor's curt, "You can't pump me." Fortunately there are other members of the Police Commission who will not stop short of getting at the whole truth and letting the public know all about what is going on in the Police Department.

And it must be said that Chief Hodgkins shows every disposition to probe the scandal to the bottom. Why Mayor Olney has assumed the attitude of shielding criminals and preventing the exposure of official crimes of such gravity and magnitude is inexplicable. This is no case for maudlin sympathy or paltering with justice.

A police sergeant and three patrolmen are accused of committing numerous burglaries and thefts while on duty, and the Mayor allows them to quietly resign. Moreover, he charges all the officials conversant with the facts not to say anything about the case. He does everything he can to stifle inquiry and to prevent the facts of the case being made public. This is one of the most astounding features of an astounding case.

Sergeant Charles E. Clark and patrolmen John F. Stahl, C. W. Hamerton and Lee E. Andrews are either infamous men who ought to be serving terms in the State Prison, or they have been grossly maligned and abused.

If they are guilty of the crimes laid at their door they should be punished to the full extent of the law. If they are innocent, they should be vindicated and set right before the public. There is no middle ground for an honest man to take in this matter. There is no excuse for hiding the facts from the public. There is not even the color of an excuse for shielding from punishment malefactors of the worst description.

Turn on the light.

"You can't pump me," answers

MAYOR WARREN OLNEY, WHO TRIED TO SHIELD THE POLICE BURGLARS.

the Mayor when asked for a statement of the facts.

This may be smart but it is not satisfying.

Mayor Olney was not elected to compound felonies and protect burglars and robbers. If members of his police force have been plundering stores and dwellings while drawing pay from the city for protecting the people against thieves and robbers the public is entitled to know it.

Such a matter cannot be a point to be settled privately between the Mayor and the accused police officers.

The enormity of the offense charged against these men is given a heightened color by Mayor Olney's efforts to withhold the facts from the public and to dismiss the matter with the resignation of the accused policemen. The case is given added importance by the notorious fact that still other members of the Police Department are under suspicion and surveillance.

If there are other scoundrels wearing the police uniform they should be smoked out and punished. If the police force has been befouled by a false accusation it should be relieved of the stigma.

The only way to punish the guilty and exonerate the innocent is to probe the scandal to the bottom and lay all the facts before the people. There is no other right course to pursue.

There is no legitimate reason for pursuing any other course. Why Mayor Olney should decline to be frank and open with the people is a mystery. Why he should treat an inquiry as to the facts as an impertinence is a still greater mystery.

Why does he object to turning on the light? What is his objection to being pumped?

The members of the police force are employees of the public and are paid by the people. A large majority of them are undoubtedly honest, trustworthy men. In justice to the honest officers the facts should be fully disclosed.

This business calls for a searching public investigation that the extent of the rascality in the Police Department may be ascertained and the guilt located beyond question.

There is a sharp contrast between Mayor Olney's way of dealing with official malfeasance and President Roosevelt's way.

The President drags the facts into the light of day and punishes criminals with stern severity. Just compare this telegram from Washington with Mayor Olney's disdainful, "You can't pump me."

"Washington, D. C., November 8, 1904.—Collector of Customs, San Francisco, Cal.: Your final report relative to Cress Unger received. Your action suspending him is approved. Prefer charges looking to his removal. Submit whole question to District Attorney for criminal prosecution and report result immediately. Vigorous action desired."

"R. B. ARMSTRONG,
"Assistant Secretary."
APPALING CORRUPTION.

Following quickly the revelation of the appalling corruption existing in the Oakland Police Department, in which four police officers are accused of burglarizing stores which they had sworn to protect from criminals, comes an order for the accused men to be put under a strict surveillance. In fact Sergeant Clark, Policemen Hamerton and Andrews are under what the police define as "detention." As Stahl, the fourth accused officer is in Oregon, he cannot be detained.

TO BE ARRESTED.

The arrest of the remaining three men is only a matter of a few hours.

President McElroy of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners was asked this afternoon what had been done in reference to preventing the men from escaping if they chose to do so.

He replied that he had given orders to Chief of Police Hodgkins to take any means necessary even to locking the men up to prevent them from taking French leave.

RID OF CORRUPTION.

"My position in this matter is that the police department must be rid of any corruption in it. Because the accused men are police officers that does not exempt them from arrest or punishment."

"They are to be treated just as any

ONE BOLT OF DRESS GOODS.
ONE LOT OF GROCERIES.
ONE LOT OF JEWELRY.
ONE WOMAN'S WRAP.
GENERAL MERCHANDISE.
THREE DOZEN MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES.
VARIOUS ARTICLES FROM A DRY GOODS STORE.

These are a few of the things alleged to have been stolen by some of the police officers. It is stated that the wife of one of the police officers is now wearing a $15 corset stolen from one of the merchants of this city.

It is also stated that the wife of another police officer is wearing an extra fine silk dress made from the goods stolen from another store.

It is alleged that the officers did not confine themselves to any one line of goods, but took articles promiscuously, some of them being of such small value as to astonish the people who now intend to prosecute the case.

Chief of Police Hodgkins is under instructions of the Police Commission as to the course he is to pursue in the premises.

At the meeting this afternoon he will be given instructions about arresting the accused officers.

It is further hinted that the scandal has now reached such proportions that it will be necessary for a report in writing to be submitted from the Chief and this report will be demanded by the public.

The people are clamoring for the full details of all the robberies that have been committed by the police.

It is stated this afternoon that some of the accused officers have already left the city and will seek quiet and rest in some foreign country in order to avoid prosecution.

While the revelations of yesterday staggered the community, there are still further revelations to be made. There are at least two more and possibly three policemen who may be asked to resign.

Their names are withheld until accurate information is had against them and specific charges made.

THE PROOF.

The proof is said to be conclusive and that these petty thefts had been

TWO OFFICERS LEFT THE CITY

It was announced this afternoon that Sergeant Clark and Patrolman Lee Andrews had gone on a hunting trip and that no time had been set for their return.

They will not be present at the meeting of the Police Commissioners this afternoon.

It would not be surprising if these men failed to return to Oakland and face the charges.

It is the general impression that they fear the consequences of their act, and hence have given out the report that they have gone hunting in order to throw their pursuers off the track.

Policeman Hamerton is still in town, and declares that he will remain to "face the music."

resign and hush the matter up, their resignation will not be accepted by the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners. It is the intention of all of the members of the board to treat the accused policemen exactly as any other person accused of a felony.

While the revelations of yesterday staggered the community, there are still further revelations to be made. There are at least two more and possibly three policemen who may be asked to resign.

Their names are withheld until accurate information is had against them and specific charges made.

CHARGE IS BURGLARY.

The charge which will be made against the men is in all probability burglary. The specific accusation against the four accused men is that they entered a grocery store, merchandise stores, meat shops and variety stores and stole small articles for household use.

THE PROOF.

The proof is said to be conclusive and that these petty thefts had been going on for months.

SKELETON KEYS.

The downfall of the men is said to be due to the use of a skeleton key which many of the officers carry. With the accused men there was no necessity for breaking windows or using the jimmy in gaining entrance to a building. The insertion of a key and a quick turn of the wrist was all that was necessary for the appalling crime of burglary to be committed.

What makes the crime all the more heinous is that the accused officers swore to protect property and were paid a salary to do it.

The articles taken were of small value and were chiefly useful in the household. Meat, fish, hams, shoes and articles of wearing apparel were the things alleged to be stolen.

The accused men stood high in the community. Sergeant Clark is a Mason. Policeman Andrews is an Elk while Policeman Stahl is an Eagle.

Each man has a defense to make but the Police Commissioners are not ready to accept excuses.

FRED BECKER'S MARKET ON WASHINGTON STREET.

These are a few of the places claimed to have been robbed by the members of the Police Department.

There have been cases where stores have been robbed and small articles taken that have never been reported at police headquarters, and, in fact, the merchants did not know and probably do not know at this time that they were ever robbed.

The officers had no trouble in getting into any of the stores, because, it is claimed, they used keys.

Consequently, when they entered a store, all they would have to do was to unlock the store and after having committed the burglary they would lock the place up again.

A number of the merchants are not anxious to prosecute the men because they do not want to be put to the trouble and annoyance of going to court and prosecuting on account of the small articles that were stolen.

man race, so Sergeant Clark, who implicates Hamerton and Andrews, throws the entire blame upon women.

Escapes and orgies in the Physicians' building is given as the cause of the three men resigning. Clark's defense is repudiated by Policeman Hamerton who says that in his long years of service as a policeman, he has never forgotten his marriage vows of constancy and that he has preserved his oath as a policeman just as sacredly.

Clark's assertion that women were responsible for his predicament and that of his fellow officers stands flatly contradicted and is not given credence by Chief of Police Hodgkins, Captain of Police Peterson or by President McElroy of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners.

This afternoon will tell the tale. There seems to be no shadow of a doubt but what the accused men will be ordered into custody.

going on:

"Clark, Hamerton, Stahl and Andrews have been accused of entering stores of merchants on their beats while on duty and pilfering from the stocks. They have been confronted with these charges and with the evidence which is held in substantiation of the accusations and the four men, individually, have filed their resignations from the Police Department. This in short, is the fact concerning the astounding revelations that have been made to the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners about the conduct of these men. To say that I am shocked beyond measure does not express it. I am not at liberty to make public the accusations or any of the details. This must be withheld for the good of the department and for the good of the public. The charges and the resignations have not officially been before the board and it will be out of place to disclose further information until the matter has been thoroughly investigated."

"The men have been under suspicion for some time, but nothing definite has been known until this week. Just how closely the men were watched and what methods were taken and what detailed results have been procured I do not know. The four were not operating together. I have not been informed as to any other charges of misconduct against these men. If they have been associating with women or misbehaving in any other way while on duty it has not come to my knowledge. The only matter before the board is that of the pilfering."

HAMERTON'S DEFENSE.

Hamerton repudiates Clark's explanation in the following language: "I say that any charge that I have ever stolen anything must be proven," he answered, when told of the nature of the statement made by the police officials. "I have long been tired of the police business, and more than two years ago took steps to get out of it. The opportunity was here, and rather than undertake to refute a lot of petty accusations that had been brought, I tendered my resignation. Now that these charges have been made, I will, if possible, recall my resignation and demand a hearing on the charges."

MAKES COUNTER CHARGES.

"I have frequently reported to the Chief of Police and the captains that men who had been arrested by me had been robbed after they left my hands and before they left the prison. Who did this I do not know, but I do know that in numbers of instances, officers have arrested men for drunkenness, that they have counted the money which the men had and put in back into their pockets and that more than once when the men were booked that the amount of money shown by the prison register did not agree with that which the men were known to have on them. The fact that money was often missing or drunks led to practically all of the arrests, when making arrests, to count money found on drunks, to the end that they might protect themselves."

"How much my repeated complaints regarding this matter may have had to do with the trouble which has come about I do not know, but I do know that for a long time a systematic effort has been made to get me out of the Police Department."

GIVES ROYAL FETE

Emperor of Japan Entertains Distinguished Americans.

TOKIO, November 11.—(Evening).—The Emperor today gave his annual chrysanthemum garden party in the park of the Aoyama Palace, where he entertained about a thousand Japanese and foreign guests. The Emperor, the Empress, the crown prince and princess and their suites entered the park at 3 o'clock and remained for an hour.

The weather was brilliant and the display of chrysanthemums was a wonderful one.

Lloyd C. Griscom, the American minister, who was accompanied by Mrs. Griscom, presented to the imperial party the wife and daughters of Rear-Admiral Stirling (commanding the cruiser squadron of the Asiatic fleet); Henry B. Miller, the American consul-general at New Chwang, and Mrs. Selmore, the American authoress, a resident of Yokohama, who has written a number of works on Japanese subjects. Mr. Claude C. MacDonald, the British minister, presented the Rt. Rev. William Adwley, Episcopal Bishop of South Tokyo, and General Sir William Miller, director-general of military intelligence of the British war office, who has been with the Japanese army making a special study of the methods of transportation.

INSANE WOMAN HAS LARGE ESTATE

Petition for letters of guardianship on the person and estate of Emma Kaiser, who lately was adjudged insane and sent to the Stockton asylum, was filed today. The petition is made by her daughter, Emma J. Moore, who states that her mother is the age of 56 and has property to the value of about $10,000, situated in this city, which needs care. Frank M. and Martin Kaiser, son and husband of the woman, have waived their right to act as such.

HARD TO END WARFARE

Difficulties Stand in the Way of Mediation.

PARIS, Nov. 11.—The officials here profess to be unaware of the reported joint mediation movement in Great Britain, France and the United States. It is pointed out that the main features of the situation are these:

Japan is evidently weary of the war and desirous of re-establishing peace. Japan naturally looks to Great Britain and the United States to assist toward a cessation of hostilities. France, as the ally of Russia, has no influence with Japan, but has influence at St. Petersburg, whereas Great Britain and the United States do not exert strong influences at St. Petersburg. Therefore, France's only activity in such a joint effort would be at St. Petersburg.

But this involves important considerations relating to Russia's relations with the European powers. France does not desire to exert influence on Russia which would be distasteful to her or tend to weaken the alliance. In fact, some of the reports of France's intention to influence Russia are attributed to certain European political quarters which are seeking to break the Franco-Russian alliance in order to profit thereby to France's detriment. Therefore, France will use the utmost circumspection concerning any joint movement, wherein her role will be solely to influence Russia in a manner which Russia does not regard as contrary to her interests.

Several newspapers print categorical denials of the statement of Mr. Thomas Barclay, (who has been prominently identified with the movement which led to the Anglo-French arbitration treaty), that M. Cambon, the French Ambassador to England, after conferring with Lord Lansdowne, came to Paris to discuss Anglo-French mediation. The officials also say that Sir Thomas' statement is purely speculative. One who talked lengthily with M. Cambon while he was in London, but did not mention mediation.

WORRY BRINGS DEATH

Prisoner Charged With Atrocious Crime Succumbs.

NEW YORK, November 11.—Frederick Ewe, a young tradesman, who always had borne a good reputation until he was arrested ten days ago on charges made by two little girls, died in a cell in the Jersey City Jail to-day.

It is believed that his death was due to fright and constant worry as to what fate had in store for him.

Ewe was one of four Hudson County men arrested on six charges preferred by little girls and his death adds another dramatic link to the cases which have excited Hudson County. Already many reputations in Jersey City and Hoboken have been shattered and two of the accused have tried to commit suicide.

Since his confinement in the jail Ewe had continually protested his innocence. Fear of conviction, however, preyed on him constantly. He frequently awoke with startled screams and told the keepers of terrible dreams in which the faces of his accusers appeared. To-day when his cell was entered Ewe's body was lying on the floor. His face was distorted with fear and the doctors said that death had come as a result of one of the frightful dreams that had haunted him.

JAPANESE LOAN CRITICIZED.

OPINION IS THAT IT SHOULD HAVE BEEN PLACED LATER.

TOKIO, Nov. 11, 10 P. M.—A majority of the newspapers of Tokio sharply criticize the terms under which the new Japanese loan has been placed in London and New York. They pronounce the rate as being too high, considering that the amount of the loan is a comparatively small one. The Asahi Shimbun expresses the opinion that it was unwise to place the loan before the fall of Port Arthur.

The new Japanese loan is for the amount of $50,000,000, half of which will be offered in London and half in New York. The price is to be 90% with interest at 6 per cent. The loan will be secured by a second charge on Japanese customs duties. A despatch from London, November 8, said that dealings in the loan had already commenced there at one quarter premium. It was definitely stated in New York Wednesday last that Kuhn, Loeb & Company of that city had organized a syndicate to finance one-half of the loan.

SENATOR PERKINS SENDS INVITATION

VALLEJO, Cal., Nov. 11.—Senator Perkins has telegraphed to Assistant Secretary of the Navy Darling, now on his way here, an invitation to be the guest of the Chamber of Commerce and citizens of Vallejo at a banquet during his visit to the Pacific Coast. The Assistant Secretary is promised a big reception in this city and at the Mare Island Navy Yard.

FORCES UNDER FIRE

Russian and Japanese Batteries Exchange Shots.

MUKDEN, November 11.—There was a heavy exchange of artillery fire yesterday at the Russian right center. The Russian batteries began shelling the Japanese trenches and the Japanese batteries responded.

During last night the Russian batteries dislodged a detachment of Japanese infantry from trenches.

During last night the Russian volunteers dislodged a detachment of Japanese infantry from trenches in front of Line Tree Hill.

The Japanese continue to show activity on the left flank, without, however, engaging in any serious movements.

Comfortable dugouts are being built along the Russian lines and the soldiers seem to think that they will winter where they are.

The idea that Field Marshal Oyama contemplates a plan to take Mukden is not generally credited. Both sides seem content for the present with a suspension of hostilities. Warm clothing is being distributed among the troops.

NO NEWS FROM PORT ARTHUR.

CHE FOO, November 11 (Evening).—No news whatever regarding the operations at Port Arthur reached Che Foo today.

GENERAL IS STRICKEN.

ST. PETERSBURG, November 11.—There is a persistent but unconfirmed rumor here that General Gripenberg, commander of the Russian second army has been stricken with apoplexy at Vilna. It is said that he had a stroke two years ago and therefore his selection to command the second army created some surprise at the War Office.

killed or wounded at 33,200 of which 900 were officers.

The first returns, it is explained, contained duplications and some of the men were so slightly wounded that they returned to the ranks in a few days.

SCHOONER SINKS, THREE DROWN

THREE MASTED VESSEL IS RUN DOWN BY A STEAMER.

NEW YORK, November 11.—The three-masted schooner Wilson H. Hunting was sunk in collision with the United States supply steamer Culgoa on Wednesday last and Captain Walton, his wife and two seamen were drowned.

The survivors were brought here today by the Culgoa. The collision occurred about ten miles east of Barnegat.

PEACE MAY YET COME.

After Fall of Port Arthur Japan Might Seek Settlement.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The despatch of the Associated Press from Washington confirming the statement made in these columns that Japan had indicated its willingness to entertain peace suggestions from Roosevelt or King Edward created much interest here. Baron Hayashi, the Japanese Minister, said to-day:

"After the fall of Port Arthur Japan would, I believe, be ready to treat for peace on no higher essential basis than that Russia should evacuate Manchuria. Japan also agreeing to similar evacuation. The two great difficulties in the way of any suggestion of peace are, first, the apparent opposition of Emperor Nicholas present adherents to a settlement of any kind, and, second, the preservation of Russian prestige. When a nation's prestige, if not gone, is severely impaired, it is a difficult matter, even with the best intentions, to preserve it. The Associated Press learns that Queen Alexandra has been in constant communication with the Dowager Empress of Russia and Emperor Nicholas himself during the last few days. This is interpreted here as a hopeful sign and as possibly likely to lead, though not in the immediate future, to the establishment of some modus vivendi where peace is to arbitration might be initiated without offense to Russia."

The relaxation of the American State Department's determination not to intervene except on requests from both of the belligerents tallies with the official attitude of the British government, but it is thought that before long some method may privately be devised whereby this diplomatic barrier to action may be overcome.

Baron Hayashi this morning had no news from Port Arthur and discarded the rumors of its capitulation.

Our First Suit of Clothes Lasts Longest

Our name is the first clothes we get in this world, and it sticks close to us than our skin—says the autobiographer in Sartor Resartus (a most blithesome book which all unhappy people should read). The second suit of clothes we get should come from THE BEST CLOTHES SHOP. Why? Because everything sold by us is guaranteed. Because we take care of the wardrobe of every customer, keep his clothes pressed out, sponged, etc. absolutely without cost. Because our policy is always the truth. It is our policy to be exact always. Consequently, whenever we say a garment is representative of the best models and workmanship, you may depend upon it with confidence. And finally because we have the finest stock of clothes for men to be found in Oakland—the equal of anything in San Francisco at less money.

REIGN OF TERROR EXISTS.

Mayor of Town Wants Troops to Subdue Serious Trouble.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., November 11.

—As the result of the killing of Constable Walter Jackson, in Montgomery, by Policeman Elliott, on Wednesday, and the subsequent capture of the town by the four brothers of Jackson at the head of about forty of their friends, a reign of terror exists there. The mayor, being helpless, appealed to Sheriff Daniels yesterday. When Sheriff Daniels and John Rolf were killed by Ed Jackson yesterday, the saloons were at once closed and Governor Whyte was asked to send troops.

The Governor replied he would hold troops in readiness, but advised forming a large posse. If the posse should meet with serious resistance, troops will be sent to their relief. The Jackson followers escaped to mountain strongholds with which they are familiar.

Ernest and Bob Jackson were arrested and brought to this city by Deputy Sheriff Davis and others. They are in jail here. A posse headed by Marshal Harrison R. Ash, of Thurmond, is scouring the mountains near Montgomery. Two bloodhounds have arrived from Dayton, Ohio. They were placed on the trail today. The officials in Montgomery fear further trouble as the sentiment against the slayer of Daniels is very strong.

OPEN AIR CONCERT.

HOWISON ROASTS CO-EDS.

Says There Are too Many Women Attending the University.

That the large number of women students attending the university is inconsistent with the attainment of high scholarly ideals was the opinion expressed yesterday morning by Professor G. H. Hammon during one of his characteristic digressions while lecturing before the ethics class. His disapproval of co-education in its present extreme coming as it does close upon his unusual denunciation of modern doubt and modern journalism, has created no little comment among students.

The professor had been talking about the temptation of Eve in the garden of Paradise, and exclaiming, said: "The predominant trait of woman-kind is curiosity. This is a woman's sin. It is to pry into every secret she should not know. And the more trivial it is, the more anxious is she to find out about it. If her curiosity were only directed toward investigating the great secrets of nature, of knowledge, of humanity it would be far better."

"It is in this way that the university is coming to heretofore its women students. They are here to attain a higher level of thought. The only trouble is that there are apt to be too many of them. They come in such numbers that the last majority are not permitted to attain this higher level, and ever serve to lower the general standard."

"If entrance conditions were made proper, a large attendance of students would be found worth the proper work. The greatest difficulty is that a lecturer on a difficult subject has to choose whether to know how to 'water' his remarks so as to make them intelligible to minds that are unripe and inefficient, or to preach in large and high conceptions."

AFTER UNRULY CADETS.

President Wheeler Says Rioters May Not Graduate.

BERKELEY, Nov. 11.—In talk to the students at the big University meeting in Harmon Gymnasium today, President Wheeler caused consternation in the hearts of the students who participated in the recent riot over military orders by declaring that all who were guilty of insubordination on the day in question would be unable to graduate.

While he inclined to treat the disturbance from the standpoint of the University as a small affair, President Wheeler said it gained its seriousness from the fact that it was a violation of War Department regulations. "The whole affair was caused by a misunderstanding on the part of the students, and this was unfortunate," he said. "The orders were not issued by Captain Nance, personally, but were a part of the War Department regulations. Captain Nance has recommended that all seniors who took part in the demonstration against the orders be dropped from his class. This, of course, means that the guilty ones will be unable to graduate."

Following President Wheeler, ex-Mayor John R. Glasscock, of Oakland, and Regent Charles S. Wheeler, of San Francisco, addressed the meeting. They spoke on football and evoked wild enthusiasm by predicting victory for California in the big game tomorrow.

RAILWAY MEETING IS POSTPONED

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 11.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Oregon Short Line Railway, postponed until today from last month, will, it is stated, be again postponed until some day next month. "This second postponement, it is believed, is the direct result of the strength shown in the recent Union Pacific meeting by the Gould and Rockefeller interests and interesting developments are looked for when the Oregon Short Line meeting takes place."

OYSTER COCKTAILS.

Why this name should be given to the bivalve served as a first course seems obscure, unless it is that they are served in cocktail glasses. However, they taste quite as good served in lemon cups or on a bed of felt ice leaves laid over cracked ice. All the ingredients should be thoroughly chilled to be palatable. For ten oysters (sufficient to serve two persons) use the following proportions: One tablespoonful each of oyster liquor and tomato catsup, the juice of quarter of a lemon, two tablespoonfuls of chili sauce, with one-half a teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce thoroughly mixed. Salted wafers are served with oysters in this style.

Wisdom From Joseph Folk.

Although the Democrats suffered overwhelming defeat in Missouri, an ancient rock-ribbed stronghold, Joseph W. Folk was elected Governor by nearly 40,000 majority. This is a magnificent tribute to the honesty and courage he exhibited in breaking up the boodle ring in St. Louis. The exposures he made involved a number of Democratic leaders and smirched U. S. Senator Stone, who made little concealment of the fact that he was knifing Folk during the campaign. Discussing the general result of the election, Folk said, "to win a party must stand for something, not merely against something." This phrase explains the weakness of the Democratic party and its impotency during the campaign just ended. It did not stand for anything, but was merely against something. Its attitude was negative and reactionary, without affirmation or definite aims. It proposed to tear down the structure of Republican policy but furnished the country with no specifications of what it proposed to erect instead. The Governor-elect of Missouri has sufficient discernment to perceive the fatal weakness of the Democratic position, and he insists that the party shall have a set of principles. His own career illustrates the value of principle in politics. It enabled him to defeat the Democratic machine before the people and it gave him his election in the face of almost universal defeat. If the Democratic party will follow such men as Joseph W. Folk, it will again become a formidable factor in the politics of the Nation and will be an aid instead of a hindrance to good government. In a government like ours an able, honest and alert opposition is as necessary as a forceful governing party. The minority should be strong enough to keep the majority on its good behavior and of a character to inspire respect and confidence. As constituted and led at present, the Democratic party inspires neither. It is an appetite without a conscience or a purpose fighting for the patronage of office.

The Lesson of Peabody's Defeat.

It is stated by members of the Mine Owners' Association that the mines in Colorado will be closed down because of the defeat of Governor Peabody. Such talk is nonsense. It is worse for it is calculated to breed mischief by carrying abroad a wrong impression. The mines will not close down. Alva Adams, the Governor-elect, has served two terms as Governor of Colorado, during which he proved himself to be an able and upright administrator. He is a conservative man of large wealth and is a law and order man in every sense of the word. He will put down lawlessness in a legal and constitutional way. Governor Peabody put down lawlessness on the part of the striking miners by the most arbitrary, unjust and unconstitutional exercise of authority. He abused his power and subverted the law and overthrew the courts. While placing the Western Federation of Miners under ban and boycotting its members, he permitted the Mine Owners' Association to inaugurate a reign of terror in two or three counties. He allowed that organization to take control of the courts and the machinery of justice and maltreat and drive out of the State law-abiding citizens for merely disagreeing with the mine owners. This business will now be stopped. The miners and the mine owners will both be compelled to obey the law. And the law is what the Republican party stands for. It certainly does not stand for revolution, tyranny and cruelty. Governor Peabody is nominally a Republican, but in reality he is anything but a Republican. He is the kind of a man the party should disown.

It is evident that organized labor all over the country voted for Roosevelt. Some of it went to Debs, but the great majority of trades union men cast their ballots for President. Hardly any of them voted for Parker or Watson. In Massachusetts they voted the Republican Electoral ticket and for the Democratic candidate for Governor. They did the same thing in Colorado and Montana. That is why Democratic Governors were elected in all those States by substantial pluralities in the face of huge majorities for Roosevelt. The election of a Democratic Governor in Minnesota was due to the defection of the Scandinavian vote, the Governor-elect being a Swede.

The Democratic leaders ought to be convinced by this time that opposition to expansion is a losing game. A rapidly contracting party vote and a diminishing sphere of influence are arguments which must in time impress the dullest understanding.

It looks as if both Russia and Japan were tired of the war and anxious for peace. Its continuance is a frightful drain on the resources of the two countries, and thus far it has been disappointing to both countries. Japan's success has not been as signal as she expected and Russia's reverses have shocked and dismayed the nation. The dispatches indicate that Port Arthur will soon fall and with it will be lost the remains of the Great Asiatic fleet. In all likelihood Russia will be in a mood to treat with Japan or at least listen to mediation when Stoessel finally yields. The recent fighting near Mukden indicates that neither side can advance. Occam cannot drive the Russians further north and Kuropatkin cannot regain the territory his army has lost. Consequently the situation is discouraging to both Tokio and St. Petersburg. This feeling will make for an early peace.

Talk of Democratic Reorganization.

From three different quarters come propositions to reorganize the Democratic party. William J. Bryan, Judge Parker and Tom Watson all tender their services as organizer-in-chief. Just what excuse Watson has for butting in does not appear, but he seems to think his claim that he defeated Parker is a title to Bourbon consideration. Perhaps it is, but we doubt it. Bryan thinks the crushing defeat of Parker is an endorsement of his leadership. Parker is certainly a worse loser than himself. The Esopus sage offers himself as a Moses on condition that he is not asked to be a candidate for political office. It is Hobson's choice between the three.

It is conceded by all that the Democratic party is sadly in need of something. To an outsider, its principal needs appear to be new leaders, new principles and a million or two voters. It has traditions and an organization, but that is all. It is as destitute of real purpose and real convictions as the bands of mercenary soldiers that flourished during the latter part of the Middle Ages. Watson, Bryan, Parker et al, are only scrambling and contending for the good will and trademark of a political establishment that has ceased to have a valid excuse for continued existence.

OUR CAMPAIGN FAIRNESS.

Nothing like our treatment of public speakers exists in America, writes Sydney Brooks in the London Mail. I sometimes wish it did. The bigger the bore the more courteous and attentive seems to be the hearing he receives.

I remember that during the meetings of 1896 some Yale boys foregathered at one of Mr. Bryan's meetings and successfully competed with his resonant voice. Nothing was more amazing to me, even in that amazing campaign than the instant condemnation of these frolicsome undergraduates by public opinion everywhere and by newspapers of every class and of every shade of political sympathy.

If further proof of American orderliness be needed it may be found in their political parades. I took part in one at the end of the campaign of 1896 in which 120,000 New Yorkers marched five miles over Broadway cobblestones to testify to their faith in Mr. McKinley. We all carried the Stars and Stripes, and were decorated as to hat and buttonhole and coat with fantastic "gold bugs" and yet low ribbons and badges and portraits of the Republican candidates. Not an inch of our persons but spoke of antagonism to Bryan and all his works. And yet, though we marched between not less than a million spectators, many thousands of whom must have had not the slightest sympathy with the objects of the demonstration, not a single one of them ventured by so much as a jeer to interrupt our progress.

THE CHILD IN THE MIST.

(Margaret E. Sangster in October McClure's.)

When the Lord of the great and the little.

The potter whose hand shapes our clay.

Sets a child in the midst of the market.

Where the world-peoples chaffer all day.

Sets a child with its innocent questions.

It's flower-face, dimpled and fine, in the very heart's core of the flame.

A thought of the Maker Divine:—

And men, in their lust for dominion, Their madness for silver and gold.

Crush the beauty and charm from that spirit.

Make the flower-face withered and old.

Bind the hands and the feet with a tether.

That childhood can never untie.

Deem not that Jehovah unseeing.

Looks down from the heights of the sky.

He sees, though the think him unseeing.

He knows when the factory wheels grind down to the life-blood of children.

When the poor little bond-servant kneels

In the pang of its frightful abasement;

Though all men are deaf to its prayer

There is coming a dark day of judgment.

And the Lord of the child will be there.

The child in the midst, as we've married it.

Bent-shouldered, dull-eyed, and a slave.

That cringes at word and at fether,

That cries for the rest of the grave.

With our free flag unfolding above it.

So free, from the pine to the palm!

And our scared pallid children beneath it!

There's a jar in the life of our psalm.

There's a jar in the life of our psalm.

There's a jar in the life of our psalm.

There's a jar in the life of our psalm.

There's a jar in the life of our psalm.

There's a jar in the life of our psalm.

There's a jar in the life of our psalm.

There's a jar in the life of our psalm.

There's a jar in the life of our psalm.

There's a jar in the life of our psalm.

There's a jar in the life of our psalm.

There's a jar in the life of our psalm.

From the mine where the midnight engulfs it.

From the mill where the tumbled air is thick

With the dust of the weaving that chokes it;

From the home, where it's fevered and sick

With man's toll, when God meant it for gladness.

The child in the midst in our clay

God-moulded, greed-ma red, calls to heaven

For the vengeance we're daring, this day.

SOUPS WITHOUT STOCK.

Baked Bean Soup—One pint black beans, two quarts cold water, one small onion, two stalks celery or one-quarter teaspoon celery salt, half tablespoon salt one-eighth teaspoon pepper, one-quarter teaspoon mustard, few grains cayenne, three tablespoons butter, one and a half cups milk.

Boiled eggs, one lemon. Soak beans overnight, in the morning drain and add cold water. Slice onion and cook five minutes with half the butter, adding to beans, with celery stalks broken in pieces. Simmer three or four hours, or until beans are soft; add more water as water boils away.

Put through a sieve, reheat the boiling point, and add salt, pepper, mustard and cayenne well mixed. Bind with remaining butter, and pour through a sieve.

Cut eggs in thin slices and lemon in thin slices, removing seeds. Put in tureen and strain the soup over them.

Baked Bean Soup—Three cups cold baked beans, three cups water, two slices onion, two stalks celery, one and a half cups stewed and strained tomatoes, two tablespoons butter, two tablespoons flour, one tablespoon chili sauce, salt, pepper. Put the first four ingredients in the soup pan, simmer thirty minutes, rub through a sieve, add tomato and chili sauce, season to taste with salt and pepper, and bind with the butter and flour cooked together.

Cream of Lima Bean Soup—One cup dried Lima beans, three pints cold water, two slices onion, four slices carrot, one cup cream or milk, four tablespoons butter, two tablespoons flour, one teaspoon salt half teaspoon pepper. Soak beans overnight, in the morning drain and add cold water, remove skin, and add to soup.

Cook until soft, and add through a sieve. Cut vegetables in small pieces and cook five minutes in half the butter. Remove vegetables, add flour, salt and pepper, and stir into boiling soup. Add cream, reheat, strain, and add remaining butter in small pieces.

Corn Soup—One can corn, one pint boiling water, one pint milk, one slice onion, two tablespoons butter, two tablespoons flour, one teaspoon salt, few grains pepper, add the corn, add water and simmer twenty minutes, rub through a sieve. Add milk with onion, remove onion, and add milk to corn. Bind with butter and flour cooked together, and salt and pepper.

A TABLE NOVELTY.

A frame to fit over the holding dish lamp and small enough to hold the coffee pot is one of the useful table novelties that will appeal to the housewife. Another that will appeal to epicures as well is a deep and roomy platter into which is fitted an oval oak board for the purpose of planking and serving fish. The board is of solid English make, and another English dish that is being shown in a great variety is the large plate, both for soup and for serving entree, which has a hot water reservoir underneath. It is made now with a metal bottom instead of china, which makes it less thick and clumsy.

Life and its conditions set forth the operations of an inscrutable power. We know not its origin, we know not its end, the presumption, if not the degradation, rests with those who place upon the throne of the universe a magnified image of themselves. There is a power that acts within us without consulting us (Voltaire). A little consideration of what takes place around us every day must show us that a higher law than that of our will regulates events (Emerson).

Special Mid-Season Sale OF Elegant Dress Hats

The Millinery Display Windows on Washington Street Tell the Complete Story.

One Window of Swell
DRESS HATS

Special at $5.00

The former prices of these beautiful, Up-to-Date Hats were $6.95, $7.50 and up to $9.50.

One Window of Swell
DRESS HATS

Special at $7.50

The former prices of these smart, Up-to-Date Hats were $10.50, $11.50, $12.50 and up to $15.00.

To fully appreciate the money-saving virtues of these two Special Lines of Dress Hats, the fact must be considered that the original prices were 20 to 30 per cent below those charged in exclusive Millinery Stores for the same values.

Each hat is a studied design—has an individuality that demonstrates the brains and handwork of the expert milliner-artist. Many are exact reproductions of the most favored Parisian patterns.

Special Sale of Torchon Lace

By taking several hundred pieces from an overstocked jobber we can offer two very desirable lines of cotton Torchon laces, insertings and edgings as follows:

AT 3c yd.—An extensive variety of good patterns of desirable quality 1 1/2 inches to 3 inches wide.

AT 5c yd.—A variety of equal value in widths from 2 to 4 inches. These laces are admirably adapted for underwear and infants' clothes.

Ladies' Hosiery Special 25c pair

Each pair is a 50c value.

They are fancy hosiery lace hose, Richelieu ribbed, with fancy stripes in red, pink, blue, green. A duplicated order, with the reduction we demand to avoid return, is the only reason why price is halved.

HAD TO LEAVE HUSBAND.

Mrs. Joseph Wadsworth Granted Divorce Across
the Bay.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 11.—Joseph A. Wadsworth, one of the Oakland Realty Syndicate's trusted employees and son of its cashier, Henry Wadsworth, has been short of a wife and child. Judge Murasky yesterday granted Clara M. Wadsworth an interlocutory decree of divorce, and, despite testimony of F. C. Havens, manager of the syndicate, to the effect that Wadsworth was receiving the humble salary of $50 per month, ordered that the husband pay $30 alimony for the keeping of wife and child. Mrs. Wadsworth asked for $50 a month.

The troubles about the Wadsworth hearthstone date back several years. According to Mrs. Wadsworth and the many witnesses she produced to prove her statements, drink was the evil which rent their home asunder. On the witness stand yesterday she told of positions her husband had held and lost because of his appetite for liquor. She further related how he had threatened to kill her when under the influence of intoxication. To show he had fired a pistol near her to prove that "it was loaded."

Mrs. Wadsworth is the daughter of Mrs. Sarah Reeves Adkins of San Francisco, one well known in this city, Oakland and Sacramento. She is the granddaughter of the late Eli Mayo, a well-known milliner of the Capital City.

When questioned last evening Mrs. Wadsworth said: "My domestic affairs have culminated in the divorce courts because I could not stand the worries and tribulations of married life. For years my husband has been a habit of drinking. Three times he took treatment in the hope of affecting a cure, but to no avail. Poor boy, it is not his fault—he means to do right, but love for liquor seems to be too strong for him. I resist the terrible appetite which has separated us from happiness."

"We have been married nine years. During the latter part of that period I have suffered much anguish. We would accept invitations to a party or dance and on the eve of the event my husband would be so entirely under the influence of liquor that I would be forced to remain at home."

"For my child's sake I have kept out of the courts as long as I could, but recently I determined that the publicity of divorce proceedings was more acceptable than the life which my husband led me to lead. He did not wish me to leave him. Only last night he came to my apartments and begged that I not prosecute the proceedings which took place in court this morning. He promised that should I forgive him he would never touch another drop. But it is better for him and for me, above all, better for our child, that we should live apart."

GOVERNOR WILL GO TO TEXAS

SACRAMENTO, November 11.—Governor Pardee and wife left last evening for Long Beach, Los Angeles county, to take part in the dedication of a new pleasure pier built there.

The members of the Governor's staff who reside in the South are to meet him at Long Beach. The Governor will go from Long Beach to the irrigation congress in El Paso.

The Governor will leave the State for El Paso Sunday night and Lieutenant Governor Anderson will take up the duties of Governor on Wednesday morning.

WYOMING GOES ASHORE IN FOG

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Secretary Morton today received a telegram from the commander of the monitor Wyoming, saying that when she grounded in a heavy fog yesterday leaving Puget Sound her garboard strike and several frames were injured and two compartments were flooded. It will be impossible to determine the extent of the damage until she has been docked.

SEEK APPELLATE HONORS.

MANY COME FORWARD AS CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR PARDEE'S FAVORS.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 11.—Since it is almost certain that the constitutional amendment establishing three district courts of appeals of California was carried at Tuesday's election by a good majority, there are now many seeking the judicial honors which it is the power of Governor Pardee to grant. The responsibility of organizing the first court for the term of two years falls upon Governor Pardee, but at the conclusion of this term the appellate judges will be elected for five-year terms by popular vote.

Among those who are mentioned as candidates is ex-Judge M. T. Dooling, who was defeated by William Lorrigan for the office of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court for the unexpired term.

Dooling's friends are preparing to secure an appellate eminence for him when Governor Pardee takes up the task of selecting jurists for the new tribunals.

Court Commissioners N. F. Chipman, J. A. Cooper, D. H. Smith and R. G. Harrison are also willing to accept an appointment to the new court, although neither has as yet announced his candidacy.

Among others mentioned are Judge James M. Seawell, Judge J. C. Sloss and Judge Thomas Lennon.

Not everyone knows what food to turn to in case of sickness or decline in health.

A man in Elgin, Ill., says: "My attention was first called to Grape-Nuts some time ago when Brother who is an editor in Chicago, broke down from overwork and nervous prostration set in, and then paralysis."

"The expert specialist (th. physician in charge) gave special instructions as to the food and put him on Grape-Nuts and cream."

"He began to recuperate quickly and there was a very marked showing of the strength and value of the food. He soon got well and has been at his work ever since, and never shows any further signs of breaking down although he works harder than he did before. He is well and properly fed and his brain and nerves kept nourished with the right kind of food—that is Grape-Nuts and cream." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

GOVERNOR WILL APPOINT JUDGES

SACRAMENTO, November 11.—Governor Pardee said today that he would appoint Judges for the new District Appellate Courts when it is certified to him that the constitutional amendment was carried at the last election.

He said that he has not yet thought of the personnel of the three courts, but will appoint two of one party and one of another party to each court.

It is presumed that six Republicans and three Democrats will get the places. It is unofficially stated that the constitutional amendment was carried by a large majority.

OAKLAND DROPS READY TO GO TO THE POST.

STILL THE COMMUTERS ARE LEADING THE RACE FOR THE FLAG. BIG FIELD WILL START IN THE OPENING DAY HANDICAP.

Still Oakland leads in the scramble after the bit of hunting. Along about turkey day, when the harvest has been hurried into the barn, Fete Loiman will be holding the pennant over his hand. If his present strides continue, Fete's bunch is in good form and the track is fast, so the wise man stands a chance of seeing a lively hand mauling the Tigers for the championship in the post series.

The percentage man to-day announces that Los Angeles and Tacoma are tied for second position. The team from the North and the team from the South are turning nose and nose and if something don't happen soon to change the position Oakland will be beyond well.

Oakland couldn't find the ball in yesterday's game. Fitzgerald pitched his best and the Commuters batted their worst. In the seventh inning, Fitzgerald got into trouble and allowed the Tigers to claw out five runs. In the same period, McLaughlin knocked the ball into the tall grass that grows in the rain town and before the leather could be located, Mac had eluded the several stations. Again, in the same period, when the bases were full, Casey came to the bat and unlike the player about whom some poetry has been written, and true off a three-run shot. Summary:

FRANKIE WELLS IS INDEPENDENTS IN A LIVELY GAME.
ENGLISH CRITIC DOES NOT LIKE HIS STYLE OF BOXING.

The boxing critic of the Mirror of Life one of London's famous sporting authorities, says of Frankie Wells:
"Regarding the actual battle, it is necessary to pass over two remarks. We do not like to speak unkindly of a beaten man at any time, but truth compels us to say that as a scientific boxer, Wells is simply the man."
"He does not know the first principles of the art; but as a set-off against that, little fellow at his weight he has a very clever eye."

He was outpointed at about 0 to 1 in all through the contest, but he never flinched, and at the finish, although he was punished, he was still working along in the hope of getting a knockout blow.

The American was not satisfied with the decision, which he and his friends thought might have been a draw, but however, Bowker did not win his match and going into the next round, he was easily, he never deserved a knock in his life.

Teachers of experience are wary in tackling smart youngsters who have courage to answer back, but there are wily young things in charge of classes who rush into interrogation with a regard for consequences. A sweet and amiable miss said to one of her boys in the primary: "Why didn't you come to school yesterday?" "Because it rained so," said the boy. "Oh, the rain kept you, eh? It didn't keep me away." "You are paid to come, and I ain't," replied the youngster. "My papa says you get $50 a year to be here and you've got to 'ten to business.' That must have been a sockdologer. ## JOHN GRACE CUP HONEST BELIEVER HILDEBRAND IS IN BRITT. IN LEAD.

COURSING EVENT OF THE YEAR TO BE RUN TOMORROW AND SUNDAY. WAS NOT A FAKE AS CLAIMED.

Here is a believer in Britt. He is Sam Fitzpatrick, the well-known New York sporting man. Says Sam to an Eastern interviewer:
"Why not hand Britt what is coming to him?"
"He had Gans beaten in a fight fought on his merits and the moment of victory lost his head, is a man of great boxers, few of them however, as great as Britt."

Gans was weak at 133 pounds while Britt went into the ring belling over with steam, speed, confidence and every quality that makes a champion. "It is idle to cry fake! There is not an atom of proof that anything was framed up. True, Gans fought as he fought against McGovern in Chicago, in a contest believed by many to have been fixed beforehand, but he was a weak champion against the toughest lightweight in the world."

There were some surprising fluctuations in the betting which favored Gans money on, but who can tell whether shrewd ring speculators were not hammering the Britt market by skillful rumors that it was fixed for him to lose? A hundred champions have happened to give the impression of a fake and yet both boxers and their managers be innocent.

"Frank Erbe beat the flub out of Gans in the Broadway Athletic Club in their first meeting and Gans was at his very best. Britt whipped Erbe without any trouble and Frank was assuredly one of the toughest lightweights and perhaps the fastest with whom Britt ever put on a glove."

"Britt is a corner, while Gans is on the tobozogan, and the slir was accelerated by the false weight."
"Britt did not do right in breaking his word with Young Corbett, but that is no reason for declaring him a fakir against Gans."

"It seems incredible that in the flush of a certain victory, with the championship of the world at his very feet, he should have been so easily misled by the false weight."

"Undoubtedly Gans' tactics caused the young Irishman to lose his head and like Corbett when he swung on Mitchell, with Mitchell's head in his hands, James Edward left go rapidly."

Cash—Gertie's pompadour is just too lovely. How does she make it stay up?

'VARSITY ELEVENS' "DOPESTER" IS ARE READY, WRONG.

CALIFORNIA AND STANFORD SOUTHERN "GENT" FRAMES IT UP PREPARED FOR GREAT STRUGGLE. FOR A "FIXED" PENNANT FOR OAKLAND.

The fourteenth inter-collegiate football game will be played tomorrow afternoon between the University of California and Stanford University eleven on the gridiron of the former institution.

And a battle royal it will be. Stanford sends a veteran team against California tomorrow, a team that has had the best coach Stanford has ever had in short, the best team that has ever fought for the Cardinal.

Against them California will send a team, largely green it is true, but none the less a team of whom she can individually and collectively be proud. The men represent the Blue and Gold tomorrow have all gone through the hardest football season ever known at California and have developed into a team California has no more assured of men this year, she has a team. It is one of the points in her favor that this should be the case. The men who will play represent men who have learned to submerge individually and work together for purpose, and that purpose will be to win the game.

But California will not be without a struggle. If California wins the quarter, the game tomorrow it will be because she has fighting spirit. Stanford has as good a team as California has, and some of the players are better. California has a lighter team, but a faster back field, and if there can be another way to win the game, the record the men similar to that of 1902, the record that famous 2-0 game can and will be duplicated—a game won by California itself.

THE SEASON'S REVIEW.
A review of the season will throw interesting light on the progress of our team. On Monday, the 31st day of August, seventy-five men showed up for football. Since that time, California has played and won six games, and scored 88 points and not having been scored against once.

The first scheduled game with Olympia didn't come off because the field was too slippery and Hopper wouldn't risk his men. So the team waited till October 3 for their initial effort on the gridiron. At this time they met the Sherman Indians. When the team met the Sherman Indians, the coaches began to hammer it into the men that they must work together.

On October 10, the team met the team christened by Olympia's defeat, 10-0. Then on October 18, Multnomah went down with the team. The team's record was playing in its best form. On October 22, Oregon was defeated 12-0 by the "varsity," playing in its best form.

THE SEASON'S LESSON.
For many seasons past, California has been playing a steady, sure kind of football, but many times with a strong team. The team has been playing a steady, sure kind of football, but many times with a strong team.

NEWS NOTES FROM
ALVARADO.P. JOYCE, PROMINENT CITIZEN, HAS PASSED AWAY.

ALVARADO, November 11.—The many friends of P. Joyce were surprised and grieved to hear of his death, which occurred yesterday afternoon. He had suffered with heart trouble for the past few months, pneumonia which developed Saturday was the cause of death. Everything possible was done.
Deceased was a native of Ireland and 42 years of age. He has lived in this city for many years and about twenty years in Alvarado.
The funeral will take place from his home here Saturday, at 10 o'clock.
Interment Catholic Cemetery, Centerville.
NEWS NOTES.
Gus Nauert came from the city Tuesday to vote.
The regular meeting of the whist club took place Wednesday evening.

The Misses Riley of Oakland spent from Friday until Sunday with the Ganons.
Mrs. Drendall of the city is spending the week with the Richmond family.
Mrs. London, who formerly lived here, is visiting in town this week.
Mr. D. Emery is the guest of his son,
O. J. Emery.

The "500" club met with Miss Grace
Harris at Centerville, Friday evening.
Gus Nauert came home Saturday and enjoyed the Republican rally and also a quiet hunt. He was accompanied by Mr.
Ross, cashier of the American Steel Company, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawson, of Payot, Utah, & Company.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously thinks by scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.
Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day and yet have dandruff. Her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newb's Herpicide.
Herpicide leaves the hair free to grow as healthy as Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in

CHARGED WITH TAKING A BRIBE

LOS ANGELES, November 11.—The first report in the special investigation of the grand jury into the conduct of certain departments of the municipal government was made today and four indictments were returned against E. S.
Ellis, inspector of streets, charging delay in having received and taken a bribe.
Ellis was arrested shortly afterward and his bond fixed at $1000 on each count.
The special charges are that on July 15, Ellis received $50 from Contractor Marshall Cummings, engaged on city work, in order that the inspection report on the work might be favorable; that on September 20 Ellis received $20
from Frank Whitely for a favorable report on street work, that on September 25 he received $20 from Cummings for a similar report on the same work, and finally that he received $20 from Whitely for a report on a second piece of street work.
The grand jury will make further returns before its adjournment.

KINIRY
A BOLD
ROBBER.Desperate Character
Admits He is Wanted
in Oakland.

David Kiniry, arrested in Los Angeles
while attempting to commit a burglary, confessed that he is the man wanted in Oakland for the murder of policeman
James H. Smith on November 27, 1903.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 11.—The sensation at the Los Angeles police headquarters yesterday when Fred Vest, who was wounded last night by Policeman J.
S. Hendrickson while he was attempting to burglarize the residence of E. J. Doherty in Chester Place, was identified on the operating table at the Emergency Hospital as P. David Kiniry, wanted in Oakland for the murder of Policeman James H. Smith on November 27, 1903, and for whom a reward of $1,250 is standing, is still the talk of the town. The identification of Kiniry was made by Detective Paul Flammner of the city detective force, who in examining the mouth of the prisoner discovered a false porcelain tooth, which corresponded with the pri. ted identity of the murderer of Smith.

Kiniry confessed his identity late this afternoon after being closely questioned for several hours. He admits he was with Goldstein in the burglary at Oakland when Goldstein Smith was killed, but says that it was Goldstein who killed Smith. He admits that he has been the perpetrator of many of the mysterious burglaries that have been committed in Los Angeles in the past two years. He says he has been committing burglaries and hold-ups in various parts of the country for seven years and the present is the first time he has been in the toils of the law.

POSTMASTER
IS SENTENCED

HONOLULU, November 5, via San Francisco, 11.—United States Judge Dale has sentenced L. P. Kauchoe, formerly postmaster at Kaula, to 1 year in prison for embezzling the funds of his office.
Kauchoe's embezzlement amounted to $1,822.

Distinctly new are some dollies brided from mercerized cotton. They give a curious openwork effect, the strands of cotton being knotted so as to form squares. Though designed for table dollies, and quite thick enough to protect the table from injury from hot dishes, these pretty little things, which come in both square and oval shapes, can be turned to adventage for the toilet table, or for the stationary stand in the bathroom, to put underneath a soap cup, and etc.

AN OBJECT LESSON

In a Restaurant.
A physician puts the query: Have you never noticed in any large restaurant at lunch or dinner time the large number of elderly, vigorous old men at the tables; men whose ages run from sixty to eighty years, many of them bald and all perhaps gray, but none of them feeble or senile?
Perhaps the spectacle is so common as to have escaped your observation, or, at least, to have been so common or comment, but nevertheless it is an object lesson which means something.
If you will notice what these hearty old fellows are eating, you will observe that they are not munching brai-crackers nor, either, picking the r. away from a menu card of new fangled health foods, on the contrary they seem to prefer a juicy roast of beef, a properly turned loin of mutton, and even the deadly broiled lobster is not altogether ignored.
The point of all this is that a vigorous old age depends upon good digestion and plenty of wholesome food and not upon dieting and an endeavor to not upon bran crackers.
There is a certain class of food cranks who seem to believe that meat, coffee and many other good things are rank poisons, but these old fellows, sickly looking individuals are walking condemnation of their own theories.

The matter in a nutshell is that if the stomach secretes the natural digestive juices in sufficient quantity any wholesome food will be promptly digested; if the stomach does not do this, and certain foods cause distress, one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal will remove all difficulty because they supply just what every weak stomach lacks, pep-sin, hydro-chloric acid, diastase and nux.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do not act upon the bowels and in fact are not strictly a medicine, as they act almost entirely upon the food eaten, digesting it thoroughly and thus giving the stomach a much needed rest and an appetite for the next meal.
Of people, who travel, nine out of ten use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, knowing them to be perfectly safe to use at any time and also having found out by experience that they are a safeguard against indigestion in any form, and eating as they have to at all hours for years have planned the faith to Stuart's Tablets.
All druggists sell them at 5c each for full-sized packages and any druggist from Maine to California, if his opinion were asked, will say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the most popular and successful remedy for any stomach trouble.

Correct Things for Men
at Keller's

The men of Alameda County who know what's in attire, always feel at home at Keller's. For over a quarter of a century Keller's has catered to the best tastes and has always kept just a little

openLONDON
DIVORCED
BY COURT.Novelist Does Not Make Any Defense to Wife's Charges.

Mrs. Bessie London was granted a divorce from Jack London, newspaperman and novelist today by Judge Ellis-worth on the ground of desertion. By the decree she is given the custody of the two children until such time as the decree is final. The property interests of the pair have been settled out of court and besides being given a certain amount of money, London has built her a cottage on Thirty-fourth street near Telegraph avenue and given her a deed to the property until such time as she marries, when it reverts to him.
The present decree was granted upon a second complaint filed in the case.
In the first action Mrs. London charged him with meeting Miss Anna Strunsky, who collaborated with London in the writing of the Kempton-Wace Letters and with being responsible for much of her unhappiness. Then a compromise was effected in regard to the property rights and the first action was dropped and a second one begun in which the simple charge of desertion was made.
London had been in China as a special war correspondent during the early part of the present war and from Seoul wrote to his sister to see Mrs.
London and ask her to get a divorce.
The letter was a part of her first complaint. The grounds upon which she asked it, however were evidently not to his liking and the milder charge of desertion was substituted in its stead. As a reason for urging his wife to secure a divorce London said that he loved another woman and that if he was not allowed to marry her legally he might be forced to secure happiness without regard to the nice requirements of society.

BAZAAR WILL BE GIVEN

A bazaar of a unique character has been prepared by the Christian Endeavorers of the Market Street Congregational Church. There will be several booths representative of as many nations. The candy booth will be Gracian, and will be presided over by Misses Grace Brown, Grace Calk and Grace Griffiths. They will represent the "Three Graces." Japan, Spain, Germany, America and China will also be represented on the "Street of Seven Nations." Japanese will sell fancy articles, Spaniards coffee, Americans, ice cream, and Germans, lemonade, while pig-tailed Chinese will manage the fish pond.
All those in charge of booths will be dressed in appropriate costume.
Lusty spellers will proclaim points of interest in the various nations to tourists.
On both evenings of the bazaar a meritorious program will be rendered, consisting of vocal and instrumental selections. O. J. Williams, a leading bass of the Unitarian Church, will sing a solo on the first evening. Mr.
Beatty, the church organist, will render an instrumental selection. Other interesting numbers are also on the program. An orchestra of eight pieces will open and close the program each evening; and will furnish in solo afterward on the "Street of Nations."

Thursday and Friday evenings, November 17, and 18, are those set for the bazaar program at 8 o'clock.

USES OF CHESTNUTS.

Chestnuts are but little used in this country save as sweets or stuffing for various kinds of meats, but they make a most excellent substitute for vegetables, and in soup are quite superior to any pure. After shelling, wash the nuts and if very large cut each diagonally across, tie up loosely in cheese-cloth, put in boiling salted water let it boil, then draw to the back of the stove to simmer until quite tender. Drain, remove the skins and serve hot with a seasoning of butter, salt, white pepper and if desired a dash of red wine.

Another method is to blanch the nuts like almonds, throwing each nut as soon as the brown skin is rubbed off into a dish of cold, slightly salted water, sufficiently acidulated with vinegar or lemon juice to give it a slightly acid flavor. Stir together two table-spoonsful each of flour and butter, moistening it with half a pint of good rich stock. Season with salt and pepper, and when it boils put in the chestnuts and let them simmer until tender, but unbroken. This makes an excellent accompaniment to either white or brown according to the stock used.
